Stolen property policy

Search eBay Help...

What is the policy?

Why does eBay have this policy?

The sale of stolen property is not allowed on eBay.

The sale of stolen property violates state, federal and international law, and we will notify law enforcement of any attempts to sell stolen property on eBay.

What is the policy?

Stolen property from private individuals or property taken without authorization from companies or government cannot be listed for sale.

If you see stolen property on eBay, please contact local law enforcement immediately.

Activity that doesn't follow eBay policy could result in a range of actions including for example: administratively ending or canceling listings, hiding or demoting all listings from search results, lowering seller rating, buying or selling restrictions, and account suspension. All fees paid or payable in relation to listings or accounts on which we take any action will not be refunded or otherwise credited to your account.

Tip

Visit Seller Help to find details of any policy issues with your account or listings, and get the information you need to quickly resolve them.

Why does eBay have this policy?

This policy ensures buyers and sellers comply with government laws and regulations, and keeps eBay a safe and reputable marketplace.
